From the Leiden Gazette, dated September 3.

LETTERS from Naples of the 10th of Auguſt ſay, that the Viceroy had receiv'd a Letter from King Philip, dated from Burgos, containing a Prohibition to obey the Orders he might receive from Madrid from the Tribunals that upon the Approach of the Portugueſe Army thither renounc'd Obedience to him and declar'd for King Charles. By the ſame Letter he likewiſe commanded him to diſcharge the Members of the Councils of State and of War, as alſo to remove the Governours and Commanders of the Places of Strength throughout the Kingdom of Naples, and give their Places to others: He likewiſe authoriz'd him to puniſh of his own Accord, and without adviſing with or conſulting any of the Tribunals, all ſuch Perſons as he ſhould find in any Conſpiracy againſt the Government. Theſe Letters from Naples ſay further, that the Viceroy had given ſome Troops to the new Governour of Barletto, to enable him to beſiege in that Place the former Governour who had refus'd him Entrance: That the Prince of Troia had been ſiez'd; and that after he had been examin'd ſome Meſſengers were diſpatch'd to his Country Seat to ſieze ſome of his Accomplices; and that among other things he was charg'd with remitting 1000 Ducats to the Marquis del Vaſto.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Aug. 28.

Paris, Aug. 28. The 25th of this Month the French Academy celebrated according to Cuſtom the Feſtival of St. Lewis King of France, in the Chappel of the Louvre. The ſame Day the Academy of Sciences, and that of Inſcriptions and Medals, celebrated the ſame Feaſt in the Church of the Fathers of the Oratory. M. John Baptiſt du Hamel of the Academy of Sciences, known by his ſeveral Works in Philoſophy and Divinity, and yet more Eminent for his Modeſty and other Virtues, died ſome Days ago in the 83d Year of his Age. The Marquis de la Breteche, Lieutenant General of the Province of Sarre, Governour of Hombourg, Lieutenant General of the King's Armies, and Commander for his Majeſty in the lower Poitou, died ſome Days ago at Oleron in the 67th Year of his Age.

Lisbon, September 7. Advices of the 3d Inſtant from Lagos ſay, That a Daniſh Ship was come in there from Cadiz, which ſail'd thence the 28th paſt; the Maſter whereof reports, That the Governour of Cadiz had receiv'd an Account from the Marquis de Villadarias, who commands in Andaluſia for the Duke of Anjou, That there had been a Battle between the two Armies near Madrid, wherein that of the Duke of Anjou was totally defeated. There are alſo Letters from Albuquerque to the ſame effect, with theſe Particulars, That the Enemy's Horſe gave way and left their Foot, who were all cut off, and their Cannon and Baggage taken; and that the Duke of Anjou is fled towards Navarre.

Falmouth, September 5. Yeſterday came in from cruiſing the Seven Provinces, a Privateer of Fluſhing, without Purchaſe; and the Jealouſie of ditto of 10 Guns brought in as Prize a Ship of Rochel laden with Sugar, &c. from Guadaloupe, call'd the America: She was taken from us about Eighteen Months ago.
